(vi) No answer is required in view of the answer to part (v).

Mr. O. R. CHUMMAR.

(iv). "The answer is there was nobody suitable to be selected from the department itself." Then who was it that was recommended by the Commissioner?

President.—How does it arise, Mr. Chummar? The answer to question No. 44, sub-division (iv), is "There were no suitable young graduates in the department for selection".

Mr. O. R. CHUMMAR.

Sub-divisions iii and iv go together.

The answer to ii is "Yes", i. e., the Commissioner recommended some persons from the department. Who were recommended? The names of persons who were recommended may be kindly stated.

President.—He must look into the file to say who were recommended for training.

SHEIK ABDUL QADIR SAHIB BAHADUR.

First of all, there were no graduates worthy of being selected.

Mr. O. R. CHUMMAR.

Were they suitable?

SHEIK ABDUL QADIR SAHIB BAHADUR.

They were suitable otherwise.

Contributions for Police Sports.

Mr. K. T. MATHEW.

47. Will the Government be pleased to inform whether Sub-Inspectors have not been collecting contributions from the public for the Police Sports and if so, to place on the table a statement containing the names of those Sub-Inspectors who have collected contribution, the total amount collected, the names of contributors with the amounts contributed by them, the amounts spent for the sports and the present balance, and also to mention—

(a) under whose instructions the collections have been made by the Sub-Inspectors using their official power;

(b) whether any one has sent any contribution directly to the Commissioner and if so, the names of such contributors with the amounts paid by them; and

(c) whether the Government sanction has been obtained by the Commissioner of Police to receive contribution personally or collect money from the public exerting the intimidating influence of Sub-Inspectors or others in the Police Department?

SHEIK ABDUL QADIR SAHIB BAHADUR.

A call for contribution in the following terms was issued to men of light and leading by the Police Commissioner.

"It is proposed to hold the Police Sports at Trichur, on 31st January 1925 corresponding to 18th Makaram 1100 on a more elaborate scale than last year and as it would obviously involve more expenditure, contributions from high State Officials, leading gentlemen and friends will be most thankfully accepted. Willing subscribers are requested to send the amount to the Commissioner's Office, Trichur."

These calls were sent to leading men by post and in case where their correct addresses were not known, through the Sub-Inspector of the place. Some of them remitted their subscriptions by cheques and money orders and some handed over theirs to the local Sub-Inspectors. It is not possible to mention the names of all those who resorted to the former method and those who chose the latter. The total amount of subscription was Rs. 830-15-0 and the Government grant was Rs. 300. An amount of Rs. 875-9-1 was spent and the balance of Rs. 255-5-11 was invested in the Nedungadi Bank, Trichur.
